

Chelsea.

H. O. BIXBY had new potatoes from his garden the first of July.

GLADIS M. NEWELL closed a successful term of school at Corinth, last Friday.

H. L. SANBORN and family are home from visiting friends at Middlesex.

CARL E. NOYES and wife, of Franklin, N. H., re-visiting at Altonzo Noyes'.

M. F. ORDWAY has a fine team, having purchased a mate for his brown colt.

JENNIE AMMON is in town Monday with a new outfit, including a new carriage.

E. W. MATTHEW is sick with inflammation of the kidneys. Dr. S. N. Goss attends him.

JOHN PARKS and his sister Mary of Manchester, N. H., are in town visiting their parents.

MRS. JOHN MOIR and Edith Miller of Bebee Plains, Canada, are visiting C. R. Corwin and wife.

GERTRIE, daughter of E. R. HYDE, was quite severely bitten on her wrist recently by Orcutt Bixby's dog.

Mrs. HERBERT L. MOULTON of Manchester, N. H., daughter of F. P. Bixby, came home for visit recently.

DR. WALTER S. VINCENT and his wife and daughter, of Wilmington are visiting his father, Stephen Vincent.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM VEAZY and daughters, Addie and Eva, of Somerville, Mass., are stopping at the hotel.

HATTIE ORDWAY, who has been assisting Mrs. Dickinson through the millinery season, has returned home to her father's place.

RALPH PERKINS of Gloucester, Mass., is spending the summer at Fernando Perkins'. He rode up from South Royalty on his bicycle.

WALTER M. ORDWAY is spending a few days vacation with his family in town. He is traveling for a boot and shoe firm of Portland, Maine.

JOHNMY M., son of J. B. Atwood while playing with fire crackers, the Fourth had an explosion in his face and the powder entering his eyes, came near destroying the sight, but by careful attention it is coming out all right.

GILBERT MOORE seems to take the lead in making the potato crop this year. Since last September he has sold from twenty hens $30 worth of eggs, over $30 worth of poultry, has eight hens and seventeen chickens left, also about twenty-eight dozen of eggs on hand. The farm, which is quite large, has used all the eggs they wanted in this time. Who has done better?

Mrs. C. G. ROLFE and four children of Atchison, Kan., arrived here Saturday night, and are stopping with her brother, William Robinson. Rolfe came on the fast train, which refused to stop for her at South Royalty, leaving her at Bethel instead, whence she had much inconvenience in reaching South Royalty, to take the stage for Chelsea. We expressed the hope that she would be dressed and fitted for market. This lumber is owned by Wolcott parties.

WHEELER & SHIFMAN are doing a large job of dressing hardwood lumber for M. E. Tucker. They dress, kiln-dry and deliver the lumber on the cars.

REV. GEO. L. WELLS of Williamstown, a former resident of this town, preached at the Methodist church here on Sunday last at the morning and evening services.

PROFESSOR MCLLOUD has for some time past been seriously afflicted with boils on one of his limbs, and has been unable to employ from his usual work of haying at this season.

HERBERT WARD, Esq., has returned to his home at Wilmington, Delaware, professional engagements limiting his stay with relatives here. His wife remains for a more extended visit.

MRS. F. G. JOHNSON has purchased the "old steam mill" building, with some land adjoining, of S. P. Pinney. It is intention to convert the mill building into a dwelling house and barn.

ALONZO DETTING of South Walten recently lost a fine, old saddle by their breaking into a field and eating of Paris green and other such as had been used on potatoes, and carelessly left exposed.

REV. ADDISON DROWN has taken possession of the Nichols place and intends making a drive westwardly about Monday afternoon. His first attempt resulted in striking a rock and breaking the point from the pipe.

ALVARO KUSIC of Wolcott, employed on the farm of Mrs. Joseph Titus, was thrown from a mowing-machine on Wednesday last, breaking his arm and two ribs. The accident was caused by a vicious horse.

Groton.—Horace B. Miller of Boston came to town last Saturday, remaining over Sunday and leaving Monday afternoon.

J. R. DARLING has his new spur-track, above Ricker's mills, done and will ship the balance of his old bark at once.

VERY much trouble is had with grasshoppers. They are very thick and destroy mowing and plowing very rapidly.

A. L. PARKER's auction last Saturday of the goods of the late estate by their attendance, people being very busy getting in hay. Most of the goods went very low, a nice parlor set and nearly new Morris & Ireland, No 3, safe not selling at all. A five-dollar old on a twenty-dollar horse secured.

J. R. CLARK sold one of the sample bids. Mr. Clark sold his mill last fall and we understand is going West next week Tuesday, visiting and to settle in business.

Warren.—Mrs. E. W. Slayton is quite sick. A son was born July 15, to Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Shaw.

MATTIE EDWARDS of Roxbury has been visiting friends on East Hill.

MR. and MRS. J. C. GREGG of Waterbury spent a few days at Pina Parker's last week.

A SON of Royal Lovett is crazy, and it is feared that he will have to be taken to Brattleboro.

MOST of the schools of town closed last Friday. Those in our village taught John Spaulding and Miss Frank Nichols had a very enjoyable picnic, with the exception of an accident that somewhat marred the pleasure. Children about ascended a tree, one of the swings and fell, breaking his ankle in two places.

East Calais.—M. K. Dwinell has finished his studies at college and is going to Vassalborough, Me., to practice medicine. He has recently bought a nice gray horse of P. Whitchee.

H. N. PEABCE is at home from Maine for a few weeks.

P. RICHARDSON has sold his horse to S. Cole of Mainebud.

PROFESSOR GEORGE FOSTER from Brooklyn is anticipating a singing-school in town, also some private lessons.

MR. DREWY from Boston, the pianist, is stopping at George Freeman's for the summer and is prepared to give lessons in instrumental music.

Randolph.—Rev. Dr. Wheelock Palmer from New Jersey, was the guest of his cousin, Elijah B. Moore.

MRS. BENJAMIN T. and Theoda Blodgett of Bradford, are stopping with friends in town.

PRINCIPAL GEO. P. BEARD and family of California, Penn., are visiting Mrs. Beard's father, Abira Griswold.

J. W. GRAY and B. F. Adams have greatly improved the appearance of their residences by making needed repairs.

The body of Mrs. Jacob Orcutt, of St. Albans, who has been for sometime a great sufferer from cancer, was brought to this place for burial Wednesday.

A PRACTICAL business education for young men and women is the thing most desired in this practical age, and nowhere can such an education of better obtain than at the Bryant and Stratford Commercial School of Boston, whose principal, Mr. H. E. Hibbard, has been eminently successful in graduating well equipped, self-reliant pupils of both sexes, who are acceptably filling positions of trust in all our large cities.

THE rain of Thursday last caused a flood which did much damage at Springfield. Buildings were badly washed, roads and bridges were badly washed. The damage was probably $25,000 or over.